

VoiceThread Rubric

	Exemplary - 3.33	Developing - 2	Beginning - 1	No Credit - 0	Score
Originality	The minimum number of comments are left and all comments are in the student's own words and contribute unique viewpoints or ideas.	Comment(s) are in the student's own words and contribute mostly unique viewpoints or ideas.	Student comment(s) demonstrate repetition of ideas contributed in previous comments.	Student comment(s) demonstrate evidence of plagiarism.
Comprehension	The minimum number of comments are left and all comments demonstrate an understanding of the related concepts and ideas and may demonstrate an effort to build on previous students comments left on the slide.	Comment(s) demonstrate an attempt to understand the related concepts and ideas.	Comment(s) demonstrate little to no understanding of the related concepts and ideas.	Student comment(s) demonstrate evidence of plagiarism.
Clarity	The minimum number of comments are left and all comments are clear and understandable.	Written or spoken comments are mostly clear and understandable.	Written or spoken comments are not clear or understandable.	Student comment(s) demonstrate evidence of plagiarism.

Grading Notes:

Each student's VoiceThread score will range from 0-10 points, provided that comments were left before the due date. 0 points will be earned for students who do not participate before the due date.

Each "exemplary" score will result in 3.33 points in each of the three categories, each "developing" score will result in 2 points, each "beginning" score will result in 1 point.

*0 points will be earned for the entire activity if a students' comments demonstrate evidence of plagiarism (excerpted from a book, website, or other sources).

VoiceThread Rubric